THE BROOKLYN SOCIETY OF MINIATURE PAINTERS

JANUARY 23-FEBRUARY 27, INCLUSIVE

1933

FOREWORD

In the Seventh Biennial Exhibition of Water Colors, Pastels and drawings the geographic range as regards subject is very wide.

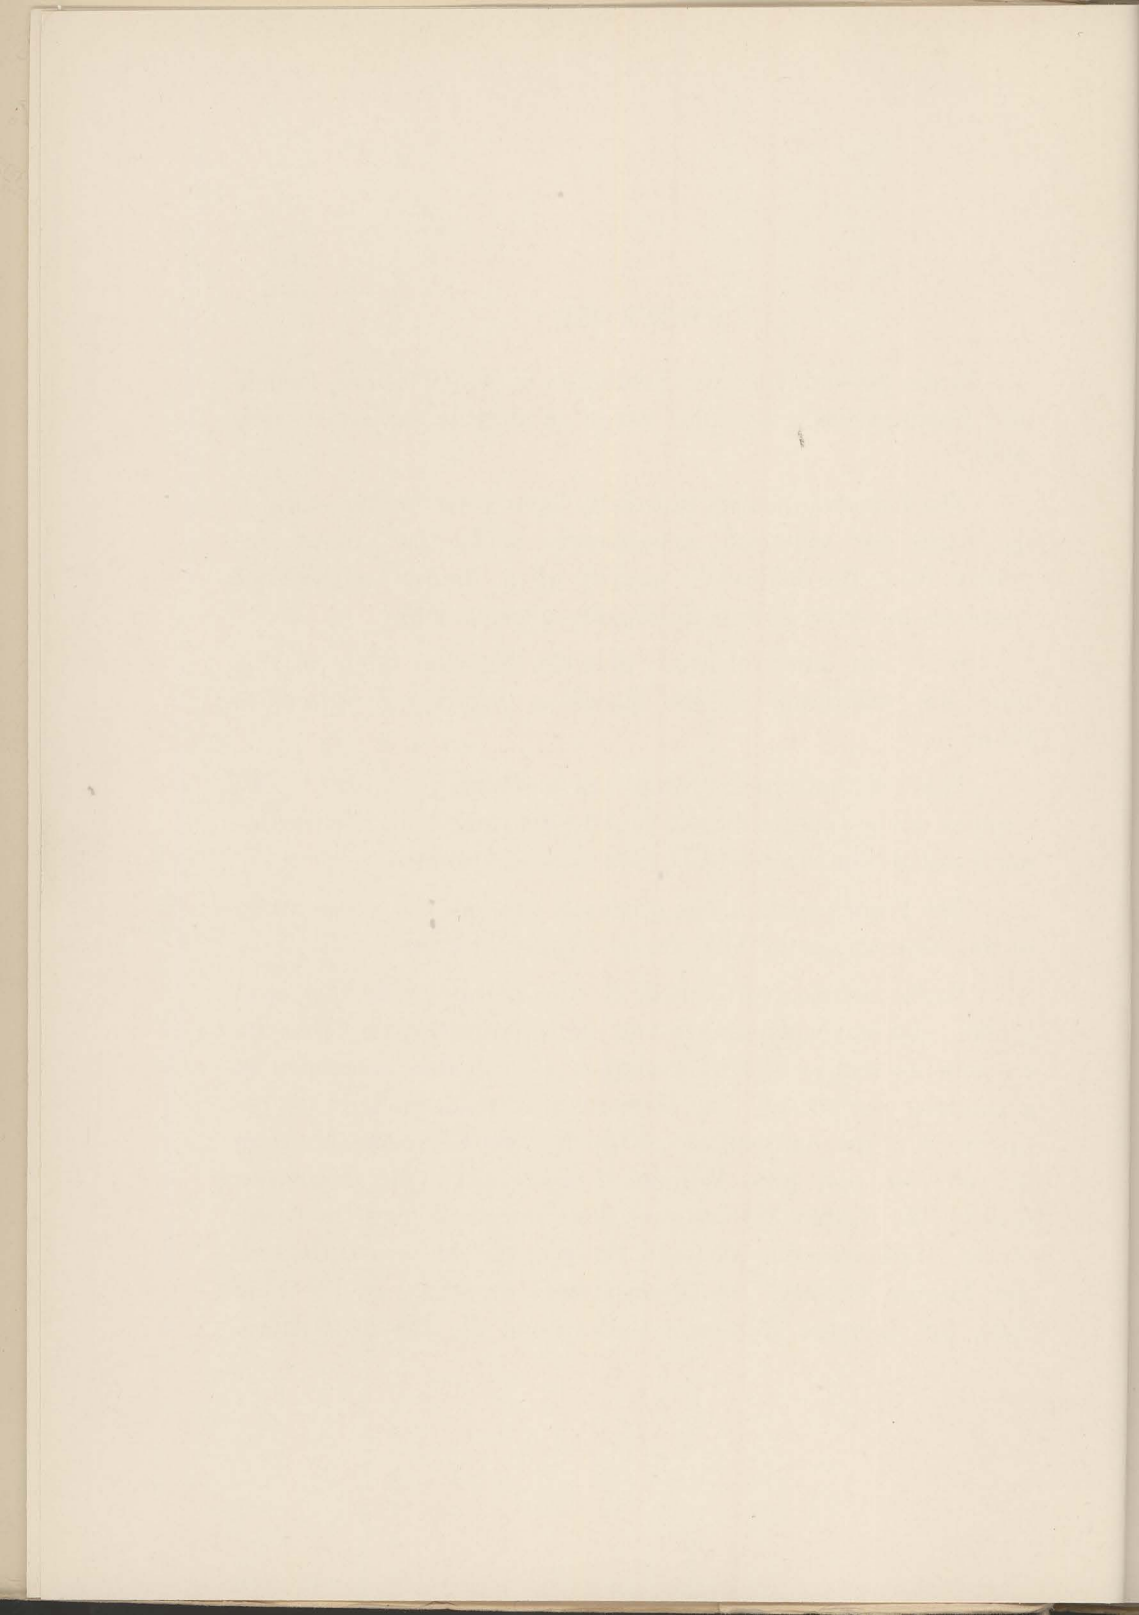

The American artists especially have gone to the ends of the earth for material, consequently while the groups are chiefly from the hands of natives of a limited number of countries the exhibition is thoroughly international.

It is with much pleasure that the Museum offers at this time the exhibition of the Brooklyn Society of Miniature Painters.

This year's German group was assembled by Mr. L. W. Gutbier of the Galerie Arnold in Dresden, and both the earlier and most recent schools of Dresden are represented.

The French section was procured through the cooperation of the American artist Mrs. Annie Neagoe in Paris.

To the artists represented, to the private collectors and others who have generously lent their paintings, the Museum extends its thanks and appreciation of valuable assistance in organizing the show. The Museum also acknowledges the cooperation of the Art Institute of Chicago, the Cleveland Museum of Art, Dr. and Mrs. William S. Davenport, the Downtown Gallery, the Dayton Art Institute, the Ferargil Gallery, the Grace Horne Galleries, the Macbeth Gallery, the Montross Gallery, the Morton Gallery, the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, the Increase Robinson Gallery and the Weyhe Gallery.
